Notes for your Guidance

Under this scheme, all the costs of recovering your Uninsured Losses are met in full, providing, of course, someone else was responsible for the accident and your claim is accepted. Items for Which You May be Able to Claim Examples of 'Uninsured Losses'.

Comprehensive Insurance Policies

a) Insurance Excess

Forward the account to Composite Legal Expenses Ltd as soon as repairs are complete.

b) Travel Expenses

Take notes of all journeys and their costs and forward accounts if possible.

c) Car Hire

If your vehicle is immobilised following a clearly non-fault accident, you may be able to obtain a replacement vehicle under our special scheme.

d) Telephone/Postage etc

Keep details of these items.

e) Loss of Earnings

If you cannot work because you are injured in the accident, obtain a letter from your employer (or accountant if you are self employed), showing how much you have lost net of tax, NI contributions etc.

Third Party Fire & Theft Insurance Policies

All the items shown as above (with the exception of (a) which does not apply) plus:-

Repairs to your Vehicle

Obtain two estimates and forward them to Composite Legal Expenses Ltd as soon as possible. Usually, it is not advisable to have your car repaired immediately as the Third Party's Insurers will wish to inspect it. If you need your car urgently, please contact us. Make sure that storage charges are kept to a minimum. If possible move the car to free storage. If your vehicle has been involved in a clearly non-fault accident, you have full details of the other person and their insurers and providing we can appoint your repairer, you may be able to have the vehicle repaired without having to initially fund the bill, while we recover from the Third Party.

Personal Injuries

In addition to the above, you may be entitled to compensation if you or your passengers are injured.

Remember

It is up to you to provide us with all the information possible to prove that the other person was at fault. If they dispute your version of the accident and you have no evidence (usually in the form of independent witnesses) to prove that your version is true, the other persons Insurers may offer only a part-settlement or no settlement at all. Witnesses are therefore vitally important. Please bear in mind that we recover your losses from the other persons insurance company. They often do not offer such a speedy or helpful service as you would expect from your own Insurers. If you are unlucky enough to be involved in an accident with an uninsured driver, the chances of recovering your losses are problematic and it often takes much longer. Lastly, if you are injured we normally appoint a Solicitor to act for you from the inception of your claim.
